Put your brand in front of a highly engaged, opinion-driven audience

What is a prediction market?

A prediction market is a live yes/no question the community bets on using Tendies (play-money, no real money involved).

Members stake points on their conviction — odds shift in real time as more people bet, making it far more engaging than a poll.

When a creator sponsors a market, your brand name appears on the card every time a member views, bets on, or shares that question.
